Immigration Status

1. Applicants with Asylum Seeker Status
 - An Asylum Seeker is someone who is in the UK and has applied to the UK Government to be recognised as a refugee and is awaiting a final decision.
 - This means that Asylum Seekers are not entitled to any government funding for University but can still apply and access University.
2. Bail conditions
 - Applicants with Asylum Seeker status will need to consider bail conditions, Housing Support and Cash Support if they are awarded this scholarship.
 - The scholarship payment terms may impact this - the University recommends that all successful applicants with Asylum Status speak to an Immigration Officer before proceeding.
 - The payment of tuition fees does not affect any asylum support, however living costs and accommodation payments might.
 - The University recommends all successful applicants with Asylum status speak to Citizens Advice regarding additional payments.
3. Applicants with Refugee Status
 - Applicants with Refugee Status in the UK will need to provide one or more of the following:
 - BRP card confirming immigration status.
 - Passport confirming immigration status.
 - Home Office documentation confirming immigration status.
 - Applicants with Refugee Status out with the UK will need to provide documentation from their country of current residence to support their refugee status. This varies from country to country and is usually issued by Government or Charity.
4. Applicants with Humanitarian Protection
 - Humanitarian Protection is an immigration status, usually granted where refugee status has not been allowed, but still allowing a person to stay in the UK.
 - These are similar immigration statuses in terms of protection and rights, however there are key differences in terms of legal framework.
 - Applicants with Humanitarian Protection in the UK will need to provide one or more of the following:
 - BRP card confirming immigration status;

- Passport confirming immigration status;
 - Home Office documentation confirming immigration status;
 - Applicants with Humanitarian Protection out with the UK will need to provide documentation from their country of current residence to support their protection status.
 - This varies from country to country and is usually issued by Government or Charity.
5. Applicants with another type of immigration status (UK Only)
- If an applicant has any other type of immigration status in the UK, we will require a copy of the BRP card confirming this immigration status:
 - Indefinite Leave to Remain.
 - Family Re-Union.
 - Leave to enter.
 - Leave to remain.
 - Limited Leave Re-Settled or Settled.
 - We may also request additional documentation to support the immigration status. This will usually be Government issued documentation to support immigration status.
 - If an applicant has an uncertain immigration status, they should get in touch with the University directly to discuss.
6. Applicants with no immigration status (UK and International)
- If an applicant has no protected immigration status and is living in a country where humanitarian or political issues (for example) are current, unfortunately we are unable to accept any applications for the scholarship.
7. We can only accept a certified translations of the documents above. The certified translation should be completed by a professional translator/translation company and include:
- details of the translator/translation company's credentials;
 - confirmation that it is an accurate translation of the original document;
 - the translator/translation company's contact details;
 - date of translation;
 - original signature of the translator or an authorised official of the translation company
